DBYD Hosts State Senator for Discussion of PSERS

On April 7, 2010, DBYD, along with Maillie, Falconiero & Company, LLP hosted a discussion with Pennsylvania State Senator Patrick Browne regarding future funding of the Pennsylvania Public School Employees' Retirement System ("PSERS"). Representatives from a number of Philadelphia-area School Districts attended the event. State Senator Browne, who serves as Chair of the Senate Finance Committee, presented his plan to address the issue and then took comments and questions from the attendees.

School Districts seeking additional information on this or other important legal issues are encouraged to contact an attorney in DBYD's Education Law Department.
